Old World vs New World

Until the famous “Judgement of Paris tasting” in 1976 the world thought that all top quality wines came from the Old World. This tasting event opened our eyes and we now know that excellent wines can be produced from many parts of the world. However there are many profound and exciting differences to be discovered in terms of style and taste. This tasting will give a broad overview of top quality regions from around the world by comparing New world wines with more classic regions.

Food and Wine pairing

Wine is made to be had with food and although personal taste is a very good indicator of what a good match is and what is not, there are certain guidelines to follow and some truly exceptional pairings to make. This tasting allows for an understanding of these matches and will give you the ability to dazzle and amaze your guests at future dinner parties.
